

Notice of Privacy Practices

DEVINE DENTAL

This notice describes how health information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully. If you have any questions about this Notice please contact our Privacy Officer.

This Notice of Privacy Practices describes how we may use and disclose your protected health information to carry our treatment, payment or health care operations and for other purpose that are permitted or required by law. It also describes your rights to access and control your protected health information. We are required by Federal law to give you this Notice and to maintain the privacy of your health information. We must also abide by the terms of this Notice while it is in effect. We reserve the right to change our privacy practices and the terms of this Notice at any time. Before we make significant changes in our privacy practices, we will change this Notice and make the new Notice available upon request.

How We May Use and Disclose Your Protected Health Information

When we give you our Notice of Privacy Practices, you will be asked to sign an Acknowledgement of Receipt. Once you have received our Notice and signed the Acknowledgement, we will use your protected health information for treatment, payment and health care operations. We may use or disclose your protected health information in an emergency treatment situation. If this happens, we will try to obtain signature on the Acknowledgement of Receipt as soon as reasonably practicable after the delivery of treatment. The following examples show the types of uses and disclosures of your protected health information that our office is permitted to make:

Treatment: Your protected health information may be used and disclosed by our office and others outside of our office that are involved in your dental care. We will use and disclose your protected health information to other dentist and physicians to provide, coordinate, or manage your health care. For example, your protected health information may be provided to another dental specialist to whom you have been referred to ensure that the necessary information is available to diagnose or treat you.

Payment: Your protected health information may be used and disclosed to pay your health care bills. It can also be used to obtain payment for services we provide to you. This may include certain activities that your insurance plan may undertake before it approves or pays for the services we recommend.

Healthcare Operations: We may use or disclose your protected health information in order to support the business activities of our practice. Healthcare operations include quality assessment activities, employee review activities, licensing or credentialing activities, conducting training and conducting auditing or review activities. For example, we may use a sign-in sheet at the reception desk where you will be asked to sign your name and indicate your doctor. We may also call your name in the waiting room when your doctor is ready to see you. We may send you reminder postcards or telephone you to remind you of upcoming appointment or treatments. We may also send you a newsletter about our practice and the services we offer. You may contact our Privacy Officer to request that these materials not be sent to you.

Business Associates: We will share your protected health information with third party Business Associates that perform various activities for our practice. Whenever we disclose your protected health information to a business associate, we will have a written contract that will protect the privacy of your protected health information.

Your Written Authorization is Required for Other Uses of Your Protected Health Information

Any other uses and disclosures of your protected health information will be made only with your written authorization, unless otherwise permitted or required by law as described below. You may revoke this authorization at any time, in writing except to the extent that our office has already released your health information as provided for in your authorization.

Use and Disclosure Permitted Without Authorization But With An Opportunity to Object

Family Members and Friends: Unless you object in writing, we may disclose to your family member, a relative, a close friend or any other person you select, your protected health information to the extent necessary to help with your dental care or with payments for the services we have provided. We will also use our professional judgment and common practice to make reasonable decisions in our best interests in allowing a person to pick up dental supplies, x-rays, prescriptions or other similar form of health information.
